Wild Horse Adoption Heading to Clovis!

The Bureau of Land Management (BLM) is heading to the Curry County Fairgrounds Mounted Patrol Arena on April 21-April 23, 2005, in Clovis, New Mexico. The three-day event will feature approximately 70 spectacular animals available for adoption on April 22 and 23.

Preview of all animals available for adoption begins Thursday, April 21, from 4-6 p.m. Doors open at 8 a.m. the remainder of the weekend. The competitive bid adoption begins on Friday, April 22, at 10 a.m. Following the initial competitive bid on Friday morning, walkup adoptions will continue throughout the weekend until noon on Saturday, April 23. The minimum adoption fee is $125, per animal to qualified adopters.

The majority of the weanlings available for adoption were born in captivity on BLM contracted pastures in Oklahoma and Kansas; the studs and mares were gathered from herds in the western states. No burros will be available for adoption.

Wild Horse and Burro Program Manager Bob Mitchell observed, “These animals are noted for their endurance, sure-footedness, and strong sense of loyalty to their caretaker. These qualities make them excellent stock for ranch work.”

To qualify to adopt at the event, bidders must be at least 18 years old, with no record of animal abuse. In addition, adopters must have specific facilities and can adopt no more than four animals. All animals must be loaded in a covered trailer with solid walls and floors – no drop ramp trailers.

This event presents an opportunity for the public to participate in the adoption process and share in their American heritage. The BLM has placed more than 203,000 horses in approved homes across the country.

For more information on the Beaumont adoption, call 866-4-Mustangs, or visit www.wildhorseandburro.gov.

Directions to Curry County Fairgrounds, Mounted Patrol Arena: From Hwy 60/70/84 in Clovis, turn South on Norris Street and go approx. 2 blocks. Fairgrounds is located on west side of Norris St.

Media Activities:

- Excellent photo opportunities starting Thursday morning, 8 a.m. Watch wild horses arrive to the site and wranglers unload them for the adoption.
- Follow an adopter from registration to the ride home.
- Talk with past adopters about their experience with the program.
- Meet BLM mascots – Chester and Radar.
- Interview BLM Wild Horse and Burro Specialists about the history of the program, and find out what qualifies as a good home.

The Bureau of Land Management is responsible for managing the nation’s public lands. With the passage of the Wild Free-Roaming Horses and Burros Act of 1971, the Bureau gained the responsibility to care for wild horses and burros on these lands in harmony with other natural resources. When an over-population of wild horses and burros exists on these public lands, some animals are removed and offered to the general public for adoption.
